Upon the stick being wrenched from his hand, the whole party ran in front of the house and commenced firing. Twenty or thirty shot were discharged, and the whites retreated except the wounded man, who was too drunk and remained on the sidewalk, and was shot down. The author of the crime is unknown. Supreme Court and Reconstruction Acts.

Minister Johnson's Instructions.

ST. MARIE OBTAINS HIS REWARD.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, August 2, 1868.

The Revenue Commissionership.

Gov. Cox to-day informed the President that his private business would not allow him to accept Mr. Rollins's place. The action of Mr. Johnson in tendering the Commissionership of Internal Revenue to Governor Cox, of Ohio, is interpreted here by Democrats to mean that the President is not particularly desirous of having the power of the Revenue Department used in the interest of Seymour and Blair. In this feeling he has a strong support among members of his Cabinet, four of whom have no sympathy with the Democratic ticket, namely, Seward, Schofield, Evarts and Randall. Previous to leaving for Auburn Mr. Seward informed some of his confidential friends that he could not support Seymour and Blair, and at the proper time he would declare himself openly for Grant and Colfax.

The Supreme Court and Reconstruction Acts.

While in Richmond, Chief Justice Chase in conversation with one of the Judges there said that the Republicans in Congress were needlessly frightened about the Supreme Court at the time the bill was passed restricting the jurisdiction of the Court so that it could not pass upon cases involving the Reconstruction laws, because, as Mr. Chase said, the Court would have decided them constitutional.

Gen. Dyer.

Chief of Ordnance, has called the attention of Secretary Schofield to the report of the Joint Special Committee on Ordnance, declining to make any of the charges good by preparation of regular charges against him for trial before a Military Court, and has asked that the Judge Advocate of the Army may take the report made against him and prepare charges. The War Department will probably grant a Court of Inquiry.

The Richmond Enquirer, following the lead of the Charleston Mercury, reads a severe lecture to those ex-Confederate officers whose inflammatory speeches have lately attracted so much attention at the North. It charges that their course only furnishes ammunition to their enemy.

Removal of Virginia Civil Officers.

A number of Virginia radicals are here urging the military authorities to order the removal of all civil officers in that State who are rendered ineligible by the constitutional amendment. If this is done the vacancies would have to be filled under the reconstruction law, which requires the test oath of all officers. Many of the places could not be filled with applicants, and the subject is causing considerable perplexity.

St. Marie's Reward.

St. Marie, who received the reward for the arrest of Surratt through the passage of a bill through Congress, has at last settled with his attorneys who presented his claims to the committees of both houses. It will be remembered the District Court here granted an injunction, which prevented the Treasury from paying the money till his agents in securing the reward were paid.

PENNSYLVANIA OIL REGIONS

The Rush to the Pleasantville Oil Fields.

TITUSVILLE MATTERS IN BRIEF.

SHAMBURGH, &c., &c., &c.

Special Correspondence of Pittsburgh Commercial.

PLEASANTVILLE, July 29, 1868.

By taking the early train at Oil City, the traveler can breakfast in either Titusville or Pleasantville at a reasonable hour, spend the day at the latter and return in the evening to Oil City. From Titusville to Pleasantville, a distance of six miles, the transit is made in stages and omnibuses, over an excellent plank road. This is being extended to [illegible], whose connection is again made with the railroad. This route passes through the Valley of Oil Creek, giving the traveler a view of the most noted productive localities of Oildom.

TITUSVILLE.

Is a city with a population of about seven thousand inhabitants, has paved streets, gas light, elegant private residences, brick blocks of business houses, good hotels, two daily newspapers, the Morning Herald and Evening Journal, a number of manufacturing establishments, and in external appearance will compare favorably with larger and more pretentious places. It has an ample number of churches and school houses, and an asylum for the orphans of the brave men who fell battling for the preservation of our country in the late rebellion. The business men are noted for their enterprise, and many of the magnates who "struck ile" live here, and their palatial residences are pleasant to behold. The city owes its existence to the petroleum discovery, and it bids fair to increase rapidly. Such evidences of rapidly acquired wealth are apparent on every hand, that one is almost tempted to believe the stories of the Arabian Nights not altogether a myth.

PLEASANTVILLE.

The plank road is smooth, the morning air balmy, and the breakfast at the American, kept by that prince of landlords, Major Mills, all that could be desired. [illegible]

The McKinney House has barely standing room in any of its main apartments, so great is the crowd. [illegible]

The true direction of the oil belt is the all-absorbing topic among operators. [illegible]

SHAMBURGH.

A Sabbath quiet reigned over this once busy locality at the time of our visit on Tuesday. Some of the largest wells were pumping but a small portion of oil. The decrease of production in this locality in the past thirty days is estimated at fully one thousand barrels. The chief cause of this is the stampede of a large number of the operators to Pleasantville oil field. The present daily production of this district will hardly exceed 1,800 barrels.

The oil market has been very healthy during the whole of this week. Buyers are anxious to secure large supplies. Entire blocks of buildings have been removed from Pithole to Pleasantville. Ten houses is about the contract time for the erection and occupancy of these.

RALEIGH.

BALTIMORE.

Farewell Ovation to Hon. Reverdy Johnson.

BALTIMORE, August 1.—Hon. Reverdy Johnson and family sailed for Southampton to-day on the steamship Baltimore, of the Baltimore and Bremen line, and was escorted down the river by a large number of personal friends on the steamer Chesapeake, and about a dozen steamers and tug boats crowded with passengers. The Baltimore was decorated from deck to top-gallant mast with flags, her sailing lines and all with evergreens, the entrance to the ship from the gangway was arched with flowers and evergreens. Among those who escorted Mr. Johnson, were Baron Gerolt, Prussian Minister, Senator Van Winkle, General Van Vliet, Quartermaster's Department, General Brooke, commandant at Fort McHenry; Hon. C. C. Cox, Commissioner of Patents, Ex-Governor Bradford and many members of the press from Baltimore and Washington. On passing Fort McHenry, a salute of thirteen guns was fired and flags were dipped on board the ship.

Mayor Banks, of Baltimore, toasted Mr. Johnson in behalf of the people of the city whom he claimed to represent, and wished him a pleasant voyage.

Mr. Johnson responded in appropriate terms, and in the course of his remarks said: "I go to England as a Minister of peace. My instructions look to peace, and if I am able to carry them out in the spirit in which they are given me, peace will result. [illegible]"

Baron Von Gerolt expressed his gratitude for this kind recognition by Mr. Johnson, and cultivated a true and devoted friendship to the government and people of America in behalf of himself and government.

In response to a toast to the State of Maryland and her Minister to England, ex-Governor Bradford responded in eloquent and appropriate language. The ovation to Mr. Johnson was by his fellow citizens, regardless of political feeling, and a fitting indorsement of his unanimous confirmation by the Senate. The Chesapeake parted from the Baltimore in the bay at [illegible].

Stabbing Affray on Butcher's Run—A Colored Man Stabbed on the Highway.

CLEVELAND, OHIO.

National Temperance Convention—Temporary Organization—Speeches by Dr. Jewett and General Dow—Crime in England—Permanent Organization—Mass Meeting Last Night—Dr. Jewett, Mr. McPheeter and General Dow's Addresses.

Special Correspondence of Pittsburgh Commercial.

RUSSELL HOUSE, CLEVELAND, OHIO, July 30, 1868.

The Convention assembled in the First Presbyterian Church yesterday morning, and was called to order by Mr. J. N. Stearns, of New York, who nominated Hon. John Cosena as temporary Chairman. Mr. Cosena took the chair and called upon Rev. C. E. Felton, of this city, to open with prayer. Temporary Secretaries and committees on credentials and permanent organization were appointed.

Dr. Charles Jewett, of Minnesota, on being called on, responded by an effective speech. He said temperance was good for politicians. It is not necessary for a statesman to be a drunkard. We have some temperance politicians. He named Governor Buckingham as one, when some one added the name of Schuyler Colfax, which was followed by vociferous applause. But the most of them are being ruined by rum.

General Dow was then introduced. He reviewed the objections of Professor Goldwin Smith against bringing temperance into politics, who claimed that unreasonable questions should not be put to candidates. He proved most eloquently and satisfactorily that the overthrow of intemperance is the great question of the age.

The General in the course of his remarks stated that the English jails were larger, more numerous and better filled than those of any other nation; that there was more crime, more unnatural crimes committed there than in Spain or Naples, all owing to the rum traffic. This remark called up Prof. Leslie, of Amherst College, who, while admitting the pure intention of the speaker, disputed his facts and proceeded to present statistics that did not corroborate General Dow. The General replied that he knew whereof he affirmed, and manifested a [illegible] feeling toward England unfavorable his position and replied [illegible]. The simple fact that England records even the most trivial violations of her laws, as stealing cherries, etc., and hence in the aggregate presents a fearful list of criminals, while the other nations referred to only imperfectly report higher crimes, should be taken into account. The recollections of the murder committed by Mrs. Victor, who was tried in this very city, and the black record of infamous deeds of darkness committed even within the last six months in various parts of our land should cause any American to be cautious how he accused any other nation of unnatural crime.

The Committee on Permanent Organization reported Hon. William E. Dodge as Permanent President of the Convention. The President elect was conducted to the chair, and made an appropriate inaugural address. Mr. Dodge is a courteous gentleman and dignified presiding officer, and a true friend to the cause of temperance, having recently given his check for $10,000 to aid the National Temperance organization. Some of us believe that our temporary chairman is not a whit behind him in qualifications for such a position, but as he does not hail from New York, the head center of temperance intelligence, culture and activity—he had to resume his position in the ranks. Whenever, however, he has occasion to take the floor, which is seldom, too seldom in fact, no man secures better attention.

In the afternoon the Standing Committee on Finance and Business were announced and a Committee on Resolutions appointed.

The Committee on Credentials then made a partial report. It is almost impossible to ascertain the number of delegates. There are hundreds of them representing the various churches and temperance organizations of the Eastern, Middle and Western States.

By the action of the Convention in the morning all resolutions were to be read and without debate referred to the committee. An opportunity being afforded to present them, the Convention was flooded with them. One paper presented covered several pages of foolscap, with its whereases and thirteen resolutions, and it is the author's candid and conscientious opinion that the Convention can do no better than to adopt his paper. One gentleman who offered a resolution calling on the "pulpit, press and pen," to aid in the cause of temperance—inferring that heretofore there had been no aid in that direction—called on all reporters and correspondents, with the modest request to publish his paper, promising a copy of the same. Unfortunately, I never received the same, and did not like to insult him by asking him, or he should have it spread out in the Commercial. He is [illegible] the only one anxious for newspaper notoriety, [illegible] from the reading of [illegible] in favor of the cause. Five minutes were allowed each State, and whoever could first attract the chair was allowed the floor. Hence, in some instances, persons only acquainted with the workings of one order, and not posted as to the general operations, obtained a hearing. In one instance a young man declined giving way to a veteran in the cause, who was called out by the Convention. He, however, had a hearing. The reports were generally interesting and satisfactory. In some instances there was a boast of what "we are going to do;" in most cases the report referred to what had been done. The Buckeye Broadax attracted attention by his quaint speech and was allowed over time. He says the battle cry will be changed from "dog and Magog" to "drug or no grog." He gently rebuked the assumptions of some that all the Republicans were temperance men, and the Democrats the reverse, declaring that he knew many good working temperance men in the Democratic party. He opposed the idea of a separate political party on the temperance issue, the true idea being the bringing of the moral power of the cause to bear on the existing parties, compelling them to bring out as their representatives friends of the temperance cause.

"Dead Grange," as Mr. Perkins, of Indiana, dubs himself, gave a glowing description of the progress made in his State. He stated he, however, spoke of the Good Templars, and "run" to other machine." He introduced to the Convention Miss Amanda B. Way, W. C. T. of Indiana, who made a very neat speech, which elicited at several well made points warm applause. She, while co-operating with the body whose chief officer she is, also aids all other organizations, and all outside of organizations willing to push on the temperance car.

Last night's public meeting was a spirited affair. The welcome speech to the Convention was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Walcott, of this city. It was truly eloquent, and responded to by the President, Hon. W. E. Dodge, in a few appropriate remarks.

Mr. Charles Jewett was then introduced and delivered one of the ablest addresses ever listened to on alcohol. He discussed the influence of alcohol upon the body and mind. Declared that it is found in no normal living substance, but is born in the process of decay. In the sound apple it does not exist, but in the rotten apple it is found. It is not a standard proper as either food or tea. Cayenne pepper is a stimulant, but alcohol is a stimulant narcotic, useful in certain cases, yet always narcotizing the patient. Hence its injurious effects on the brain, the nerves, the mental and moral powers of man. Several times the speaker endeavored to stop, but the interested audience would not permit, and he was kept at it till nine o'clock, when he refused to talk longer.

He was followed by Mr. McPheeters, of Washington City, who ably advocated the consolidation of all temperance men in order to secure success. He spoke eloquently of the necessity of charity and patience in the case of the drunkard. Gen. Dow followed with a lengthy address. Mr. McPheeters, however, was limited to ten minutes. This limitation, unauthorized by the Convention, has caused considerable feeling. Certainly no distinctions should have been made between men. If one man is allowed all the time he desires, it is an insult to limit another appointed by the same authority to address the meeting. Had Mr. McPheeters represented a New York publishing interest he would have been unfettered.

One has only to read the list of officers and Committees not "tried and dried" beforehand to convince him that it is the conception of some, only New York city men can officiate. While many of us western men enjoy traveling towards the East in search of light, we think that temperance light emanates from chandeliers not found in the metropolis. Nothing is more disgusting than for young men to secure positions on several important Committees by the holding of the rule, "you tickle me and I'll tickle you." I would not be surprised if a blast from the West wouldn't to-day put out some of the New York light.

So great is the attendance of delegates, the hospitality of this noble city is taxed beyond its capacity. Scores have been compelled to seek the hotels. Russell's is overflowing.

It is hoped that some plan of operation and co-operation will be devised whereby the cause of temperance may be permanently successful. Too many past efforts have proved ephemeral. Was some plan be prepared that will not only shine in grand deeds, but shine in their continuance.

OPEN AIR SERVICES.—Tent preaching was held on the West Common, Allegheny, yesterday afternoon, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. Open air services were also held last night in front of the Association Rooms on Fifth street. Both services were well attended.

ALLEGHENY FIRE ALARM TELEGRAPH.—Mr. Robert C. Elliott, of this city, agent for Messrs. Gamewell, Kennard & Co., has been awarded the contract for building the extension of the Allegheny Fire Alarm Telegraph to the new districts of that city. Mr. Elliott had the contract for erecting the Alarm Telegraph now in use in Allegheny.

ENGINE HOUSE REPAIRS.—The repairs on the Independence Engine House in the Twelfth ward are completed, and the company have now one of the most convenient houses in the two cities. A new pair of handsomely finished doors have been presented to the company by Mr. Reynolds, the contractor.

MUSIC STORE ENTERED AND ROBBED.—The music store of Barr, Knake & Buettler, St. Clair street, near the bridge, was entered from the rear of the building on Saturday evening, and musical instruments to the value of four or five hundred dollars carried off. Chief of Police Greene has the matter in charge, and is working it up.

ACCIDENT.—Chief Engineer Crow, of the Allegheny Fire Department, met with an accident while returning from the fire at the Utility Works, on Friday night. He was seated on the Friendship Hose carriage, when the front wheels dropped into a deep rut, throwing him violently to the ground. His wrist was sprained and his body otherwise bruised by the accident.

TARENTUM CAMP GROUND.—The trustees of the Tarentum camp grounds held a meeting on the grounds last Thursday, when a large number of persons desiring to obtain sites for tents were present. From indications, the approaching meeting will be one of the largest ever held on the grounds. All the sites within the main circle have been taken, and a number in the second circle have also been secured. During the camp meeting there will be four large boarding tents on the grounds.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—On Saturday, Mr. Wm. Flankerton, a butcher living a few miles back of Allegheny, was attending the Allegheny market, and about nine o'clock in the evening started in his wagon for home, since which time nothing has been seen or heard of him. He was a thoroughly temperate man in his habits, and fears are entertained that some mishap has befallen him. Any information regarding him left at the Allegheny Mayor's office will be thankfully received by his anxious family.

TWENTY-THIRD DISTRICT CONGRESSIONAL CONFERENCE.—The Republican Conferees for the Twenty-third Congressional District reassembled at the Exchange Hotel, in Freeport, Armstrong county, on Saturday, and resumed balloting for a nominee for Congress. Twelve ballots were taken, resulting the same as all previous ballots, three votes for each candidate, making in all, thus far, one hundred and eighty-one ballots without a choice. The Conference adjourned to meet again at the same place on Monday next, the 10th inst., to resume balloting.

PUBLIC READING.—Rev. Wm. Evans will give a reading of selections at the Keystone Skating Rink, Robinson street, Allegheny, to-morrow evening. The readings are given under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. The Cleveland Leader speaks of Mr. Evans as follows:

"Mr. Evans is possessed of remarkable talent, and has met with remarkable success, his voice possesses wonderful richness and power, and his delivery charms all by its purity and delicacy and at the same time by the masterly grasp and appreciation of the full meaning and feeling of the text which it discloses."

THE OLYMPIC BASE BALL CLUB ON A TOUR.—The Olympic Base Ball Club, of this city, one of our best home clubs, will leave on a short Western tour to-day. They will remain away during the week, and will visit the following places, playing the clubs named: On to-day, the Means of Steubenville; Tuesday, the Independent of Mansfield; Wednesday, the Detroit of Detroit; Thursday, the Forest City of Cleveland; and on Friday, the Independent of Massillon, returning home on Saturday. The following named gentlemen compose the nine, with the usual substitutes: Al. Pratt, J. A. Chambers, W. McClintock, Leonard, J. Baughman, S. Loomis, Sullivan, Brewer, W. Wilkins, McKnight, McKibbins, D. Loomis and Lamont.

AN ORATOR LOCKED UP.—Yesterday afternoon a man named Siebert, while partially intoxicated, ascended the Postoffice steps, in Allegheny City, and then proceeded to give a free lecture, much to the amusement and gratification of the urchins. He opened his lecture upon religious subjects, but finally dwindled into politics, upon which topic he succeeded in gathering around him quite a congregation of grown up persons. The police informed him that he was violating the city laws by disturbing the Sabbath, but he still kept on in his speech, and was about entering on a discussion of the merits of the respective candidates for the Presidency, when he was "collared" by a policeman and provided with a cell in the lock-up. Towards evening he became sufficiently sober to conduct himself properly, when he was let off upon leaving a deposit for his appearance this morning.

Public Amusements.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Gov. Joseph C. Foster's brief season at this elegant house was inaugurated Saturday night. There was a large audience present, and the entertainment passed off pleasantly. Messrs. Hernandez and Frank Foster are very amusing pantomimists, and their tricks of a novel and pleasing character. Miss Laurent made a very favorable impression, as in fact all in the cast did. The success of the brief season is assured, judging from the general satisfaction of the audience expressed Saturday evening. To-night three pleasing plays will be presented. To-morrow the popular pantomime, "Number Nip," will be performed for the first time.

CONSECRATION OF BISHOP MULLEN.

Imposing Services at the Cathedral—Four Bishops and Sixty Clergymen Participate in the Ceremonies—A Silver Cornet Band, and a Choir of Fifty Persons—A Banquet at the Residence of the Bishop.

The Rt. Rev. T. Mullen, Bishop elect of the Erie Diocese, was consecrated in St. Paul's Cathedral yesterday. Notwithstanding the fact that an admission fee of one dollar was charged, the Cathedral was well filled, there being at least twenty-five hundred persons in attendance.

The consecration of a bishop is one of the most august ceremonies of the church, and every effort is made to make the exercises very impressive. A choir of fifty persons was engaged yesterday, and in addition to this a silver coronet band was stationed in the gallery near the main entrance to the cathedral.

The services were conducted by Right Rev. Bishop M. Domenec, assisted by Bishop Woods of Philadelphia, Bishop Rappe of Cleveland, Bishop Stranahan of Harrisburg, Bishop Lowers of Fort Wayne, Mitred Abbot Boniface Wimmer of St. Vincent's Academy, and about sixty of the clergy of this and neighboring dioceses.

THE PROCESSION.

At ten o'clock the procession entered the north door of the Cathedral and marched to the altar in the following order: The censor bearer, the Acolytes, eight altar boys bearing lighted tapers, sixty priests, the Abbot of St. Vincents with two chaplains, Bishop Stranahan, Bishop Lowers, the Bishop elect accompanied by Bishop Woods and Bishop Rappe. Following these was Right Rev. Bishop Domenec, the consecrator. There were also in the procession seventeen students from St. Michaels Seminary.

The Bishops, clergymen and assistants, all wore the robes of the church and presented an imposing appearance.

AT THE ALTAR.

The consecrator vested in full pontificals took a seat at the altar, and the elect was led to him by the assistant Bishops. The consecrator and Bishops then took seats for a few moments, after which they rose, and Father Hickey read the Apostolic commission from the Pope.

The Bishop elect was then subjected to a lengthy examination as to the doctrines of the Church, and his duties as Bishop. After this the assistant Bishops conducted the elect to the consecrator, before whom he knelt, kissing his hand. The consecrator then laid off his mitre and commenced mass as usual. After the confession had been concluded the elect was vested in the Tunic, Dalmatic and Cassuble. The Litany of the Saints were then sung and after some further religious exercises the sermon was delivered by Rev. S. Wall.

THE SERMON OF FATHER WALL.

The sermon was devoted to a consideration of the past and present condition of the Catholic Church and the duties of the Bishops. It was to be inferred from the eagerness with which the congregation had witnessed the ceremonies that this was no ordinary occasion. The solemn rite that they had this day witnessed, in the opinion of the speaker, was enough to influence a mind blunted to the voice of reason. This was the first time that many of them had witnessed this ceremony, as it occurred but seldom. The speaker alluded to the condition of the Roman Catholic Church and the manner in which it had been sustained. Carlyle, who was an opponent of the church, had said it was the only institution now living which reminded one of the Roman Empire. It was the oldest establishment we had in this world; it was older than any human government in the world. After discussing this subject at considerable length he addressed the elect, cautioning him in regard to the responsibilities of the office, concluding this portion of the discourse by saying:

The purple robe with which you are invested reminds you that, if necessary, you must lay down your life for Christ, as Christ gave his blood for the Church.

The cross upon your breast reminds you that you are to have forever the cross of Christ before your eyes, that you like He may be humble. You are to follow Christ and take up the cross from this day forward, because you are to-day the father of all, the instructor of us all, to teach us the spirit of Jesus Christ—the spirit of humility.

The ring placed upon your finger reminds you that you are a bridegroom to the Church of Christ. Be always faithful to the spouse.

The Crozier placed in your hand reminds you that it is your duty to group the faithful in the Church, and any that be scoffers of your church that you strike them.

The Mitre, with its two points, which is placed upon your head, reminds you of the Old and New Testament—the Word of God. Be always careful in maintaining it.

THE CONCLUDING SERVICE.

After the sermon had been delivered, the cross, ring, and other articles described above, were presented to the Bishop in the manner prescribed in the ritual.

The consecrator then laying aside his mitre, turned to the altar and commenced the Te Deum, which was continued by the choir.

After the hymn had been commenced Bishop Woods, of Philadelphia, and Bishop Stranahan, of Harrisburg, wearing three mitres, led the newly consecrated Bishop through the Church, and as he passed down the main aisle he proceeded to bestow his blessing upon the people, who knelt to receive it. After the return to the altar the services were concluded, and the procession again formed and marched out by the same door they had entered. The consecration occupied four hours time.

Rev. A. M. Ward officiated as Master of Ceremonies, and Rev. Thomas O'Connor as Assistant Master of Ceremonies.

THE CHOIR.

The Choir did their part admirably, and added much to the interest of the exercises. A solo by Miss Moutey, was especially noticeable.

A BANQUET.

A grand banquet was given to the Bishop and clergy, at the Bishop's house, in the afternoon at three o'clock, and the tables were loaded with all the delicacies of the season. Speeches were made by Bishop Domenec and others and the affair was heartily [illegible] participated.

THE EVENING SERVICES.

Services were held at the Cathedral in the evening at which Bishop Mullen officiated. A sermon was preached by Bishop Woods, of Philadelphia.

Police Items.

[Before Mayor Blackmore.]

AGGRAVATED ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

Officer Matthias Wilbert, of the Mayor's police, made information against a man named Frank Hastings, charging him with aggravated assault and battery. It will be remembered that a few evenings since Wibert arrested a man on the street for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. While proceeding to the lock-up some of the prisoner's friends made a movement to rescue him, and the officer was assaulted with sticks and stones. One of these missiles struck the officer on the shoulder, inflicting a very painful wound. It was afterwards ascertained that Hastings had thrown the stone which struck the officer, hence the charge. A hearing was had in the case on Saturday, which resulted in the accused being held to bail in the sum of $800 for his appearance at court.

DISCHARGED.

Joseph Bauman, charged with the larceny of a trunk from a woman named Mary McGinnis, was arrested by officer Gumbert on Saturday. A hearing in the case resulted in the discharge of the accused, it being clearly established that Bauman, who was employed to carry the trunk for the lady, had left it where he was ordered to leave it. The trunk was recovered and Bauman discharged as stated.

[Before Burgess Salisbury, of Birmingham.]

ALLEGED LARCENY.

Constable G. F. Vogel made information against Isaac Ponder, charging him with larceny. It was alleged that the defendant had stolen a bridle rein from Shaffer's stable, in Birmingham. The stolen article was valued at about one dollar. A warrant was issued.

CHARGE DISMISSED.

In the case of James Greenwood against Johanna Charles and David Myers, for assault and battery, disorderly conduct and numerous other offenses, a hearing was had, the defendants all being arrested. The evidence went to show that David who is seventy years of age had nothing whatever to do with the "squabble" and was discharged. It was clearly shown that both parties were at fault, and the conclusion arrived at by the Justice of requiring each party pay half the costs, met with their approval and the case was amicably settled.

ALLEGED LARCENY OF A SKIFF.

Thomas Edgar, a resident of Monongahela borough, in an information before this justice, alleged that on the 15th inst., a skiff and chain of the value of $21 50, was stolen from its moorings in the Monongahela river in that borough. No trace of the skiff could be found until a day or two ago, when Edgar ascertained that it was in possession of a man named Samuel Miller, who had it tied to the towboat Sampson, lying in the Monongahela near the borough named. He immediately went before the Justice where the information was made and an officer sent to arrest the accused. When the latter had arrived at the boat he found the skiff had in the meantime been broken to atoms, and lay around the place in pieces. The accused could not be found.

[Before Justice Barker, of South Pittsburgh.]

HELD TO ANSWER.

Before the above magistrate a hearing was had in the case of Crispin Dorer, charged with cruelty to animals. Dorer, it will be recollected, was arrested at the instance of several citizens, by officer John Stemler, while he was in the act of beating a horse over the head and neck with the butt end of a whip. Several citizens were examined whose testimony went to show that the horse had been most inhumanly treated, and that without cause. Dorer wanted the magistrate to fine and discharge him, but the latter used his own judgment and held Dorer to bail to answer the charge at the September session of Court. Justice Barker has instructed his police to arrest all drivers who wantonly abuse their horses, and if the officers only carry out the instructions we expect to have quite a number of cases to report, as the wanton abuse of animals is of every day occurrence.

A COSTLY SHAVE.

Hugh Murphy, as he was walking over the Smithfield street bridge, in the direction of South Pittsburgh, met a barber named Leonard Brucker, who does business in that borough, coming to this side. The former owed Brucker a shaving bill, and Murphy informed him that he would call in shortly and settle it. They parted, Brucker coming to this side and Murphy going directly to the barber shop. There he told Brucker's boy that he had paid the old man his account, and also ten cents for an additional shave. The lad shaved him, but the truth became known soon after, and Murphy was arrested and taken before Justice Barker, on a charge of disorderly conduct. He was let off on payment of the costs.

[Before Alderman McMasters.]

CHARGED WITH MISDEMEANOR IN OFFICE.

William Peters on Saturday made an information before Alderman McMasters, charging Alderman W. O. Johns, of the old Seventh ward, with misdemeanor in office. The allegations of the prosecutor are that Alderman Johns refused to give him a transcript from his docket in a certain case in which a man named Lindsay was plaintiff and he defendant, said Alderman having given judgment against him to the amount of $45, and also issued an execution attachment, without regard for any of the forms of law provided in such cases. The prosecutor wishing to take the case to Court, would necessarily have to obtain a transcript from the docket, which, we have already stated, the Alderman refused to give, although the proffer to pay for the same was made. It is alleged by the prosecutor that the Alderman had no docket entry of the case, and accordingly any proceedings had were necessarily illegal, and as a consequence a misdemeanor in office on his part. A hearing has not yet been had in the case.

[Before Alderman Donaldson.]

OUTRAGEOUS ASSAULT ON A CHILD.

Mrs. McAnally on Saturday appeared at the office of this magistrate and made an information for assault and battery against a man named Gallaghan, a carter. It appears that shortly before noon on Saturday a little daughter of Mrs. McAnally was playing in a wagon belonging to Gallaghan at the Point, when the latter came along and, it is alleged, without any provocation whatever, struck the child on the head with a brick and then horse-whipped her, producing severe injuries. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of the accused.

[Before Mayor Drum, of Allegheny.]

ARREST OF ATTEMPTED RESCUERS.

We mentioned on Saturday the fact of a disturbance in the Second ward, Allegheny, and the arrest of the principal and his attempted rescue by some parties who were present. On Sunday two others named Lemon and Stewart were arrested by the police, charged with being engaged in the attempted rescue. The former was fined twenty dollars and the latter twenty five dollars and costs.

THE ALLEGHENY PARKS.—The work of improving the Allegheny Common Grounds is progressing very satisfactorily. The West Common has been nearly filled up to the grade required, and laborers have been engaged for some days past in excavating for the fountain on East Common. The grounds will be enclosed by a neat iron fence, which will cost a large sum of money.

The meeting was called to order by Joseph Caskey, Chairman of the Committee on Organization, who reported that the Committee had selected Captain Edward S. Wright as President of the Club. The report was accepted, and Mr. Wright unanimously elected.

Captain Wright took the chair, and after a few remarks, the minutes of the previous meeting were read by J. Henry Miller, Secretary. They were approved.

The Chairman then read the names of the permanent officers, and members of the different committees, as chosen by the Committee on Permanent Organization.

On motion of Mr. Mawhinney, the report was accepted, and the committee discharged. Following is the report:

The Chairman stated that a Constitution had been prepared by Mr. Caskey, for the acceptance of the Club, which he proceeded to read, as follows:

We, the undersigned citizens of the Sixth (late Eighth) ward, of the city of Pittsburgh, deeming it our duty not only to ourselves, but also to our country, that the Republican party, which has carried us safely through the rebellion, should be successful in the coming elections; therefore be it

Resolved, That we associate ourselves together for the purpose of organizing a Club, to be styled the Sixth Ward Grant and Colfax Club.

Resolved, That the men selected for our standard bearers in this campaign are men who have been tried and found equal to every emergency. We therefore pledge ourselves, each and every one of us, to use all honorable and lawful measures to secure their election.

Resolved, further, That believing in the old adage that in unity there is strength, and seeing the necessity of presenting an unbroken front to the enemy, we pledge ourselves to the support of the Republican nominees in the October election.

Resolved, That the Sixth Ward Grant and Colfax Club keep a minute book for the purpose of receiving the signatures of each and every member, and that the same shall, by so signing, signify that he indorses the principle herein contained, and will use all honorable means for their success.

The declaration of principles was unanimously adopted and the Secretary was instructed to have it engrossed and prepared ready for signatures.

John H. Kerr, Esq., was introduced to the Club by the President as the speaker of the evening. Mr. Kerr addressed the Club at some length, earnestly and eloquently, and was listened to with the greatest attention by all present. The speaker was among the first to enlist in the Union army at the breaking out of the rebellion, and had, before the war ended, served under General Grant. He aided, under the leadership of that great soldier, to defeat rebels, and he was now again enlisted under the same leader for the political campaign against the same enemy and for the same principles.

Mr. Kerr was followed by John S. Lamble, Chairman of the County Committee on Speakers and Meetings, who made a brief but able address.

On motion of J. H. Miller, the thanks of the meeting were returned to Messrs. Kerr and Lamble for their able addresses.

Mr. Wilmot, Chairman of the Vigilance Committee, announced that the committee would meet at the School House on Thursday evening, at which it is hoped all will be present.

Notice was also given that the Committee on Military Organization will meet in the Ann street School House on Tuesday (to-morrow) evening.

On motion of Mr. Caskey, seconded by Mr. J. R. Miller, Friday evening of each week was fixed upon as the time for the meetings of the Club, and that they be held alternately at the Ann street and the Second Street School Houses. Next Friday evening the Club will meet at the Second Street School House.

The Iron City Martial Band, William Robinson, leader, was present, and favored the meeting with music.

The Daily Commercial

MONDAY, AUGUST 3, 1868.

THE COMMERCIAL is the largest daily paper in the State, and goes daily one fourth more reading than any other paper in Pittsburgh. It is the only Pittsburgh paper that uses the telegraph liberally, gives full market reports, and all the news of the day.

As proof of the estimate placed on the market reports of the COMMERCIAL, we will state that they are regularly copied by the New York Economist, Shipping List, Iron Age, and other papers of this character in that and other cities, and that leading British commercial papers and circulars regularly reprint them with credit. There is neither [illegible] story. Of [illegible] any kind [illegible] prices [illegible] because its reports are the only full and reliable given of the Pittsburgh markets.

ALASKA is looking up. Dispatches say that a vein of anthracite coal, twenty feet thick, has been discovered, which on being tried proves to be of unequalled quality.

OUR Washington special embodies an interesting statement concerning the position of the President and the Cabinet on the Presidency, and an important report of what Mr. CHASE said in Richmond concerning the Supreme Court.

Is SEYMOUR going to decline? If not, why does he not fulfil his promise to write a letter of formal acceptance? This inquiry has become general. In some quarters it is suggested that BLAIR having taken the lead and overlaid SEYMOUR, the latter is seriously contemplating declining in his favor and suggesting that honest patriot, WADE HAMPTON, for Vice.

THE Pittsburgh Post has thus far failed to print WADE HAMPTON's speech. This inattention to the great Democratic leader, is indication of a state of demoralization even greater than we supposed existed. The [illegible] "Western Pennsylvania," are entitled to know the history and the interpretation of the Tammany Platform. HAMPTON has given the only authentic account yet published, but we have looked in vain for it in [illegible].

MR. SEYMOUR has written a letter to make known for a certainty what was generally suspected before, to-wit: that he never held a war bond in his life. He indignantly repudiates the idea that he holds even a single bond now. The letter is very much in the spirit that WADE HAMPTON, TOOMBS and that sort of patriots would write. SEYMOUR did what he could to prevent enlistments and frustrate the draft. His hate of the loyal cause would not permit him to invest a dollar of his wealth in Government securities, for he might by so doing oppose the rebellion. He is clearly entitled to all the benefit his letter will do him with men with right hearts. It will doubtless cause him to be all the more loved by the FORRESTS, HAMPTONS, COBBS and SEMMESES.

IT is reported that, so far as is known, more than one-half of those who attended the Democratic Soldiers' Convention, (for no other purpose, it would seem, than to get swindled by Tammany) will support GRANT. Enlisting under the leadership of HAMPTON, TOOMBS, SEMMES & Co., is more than men who have marched to battle under the Stars and Stripes can do. The Convention might have secured their support by nominating HANCOCK. It might have nominated a War Democrat. But it did neither. It did the very opposite thing. Had it studied to insult soldiers disposed to act with the Democratic party, it could have chosen no way to do it more effectually than when it nominated SEYMOUR and BLAIR, and put forth a platform framed by the rebel BAYARD, of Delaware, and amended by the rebel cavalry leader, WADE HAMPTON. Does anybody wonder that more than half of the soldiers who attended the Convention propose to support GRANT?

THE OLD, OLD CONFLICT.

If we did not believe that Principle will survive and conquer Prejudice, we would place but little dependence in the persistent endeavours of honest men and women to promote truth and progress. Fortunately, however, for humanity, the verdict of history is decidedly in favor of Principle, and it is noteworthy that even the temporary success of Prejudice eventually results, indirectly, if not directly, in the promotion of truth. The laws which govern the moral world seem to be inseparably connected with those which govern the physical world. Any infraction of either is invariably punished in proportion to the departure from them, and very often with good effect. The Good Physician mercifully intervenes with his wondrous skill to protect life and reputation, where otherwise Death and Disgrace would reign supreme.

We firmly believe that the total disregard and violation of these laws by reckless men North and South precipitated the country into a fratricidal struggle, a struggle in which intelligence was pitted against ignorance, falsehood against truth, prejudice against principle; a conflict which has been waged at intervals with rancor, fury, hate and deadly animosity upon one side, and upon the other with considerate forbearance and a desire to conciliate, from time immemorial; a conflict inherited by weak human nature, and which it appears is perpetuated by its passions. This conflict, which is only silent when it seems to slumber, and which well disposed people of our day fancied they had closed for a time at least, is, in reality demanding our attention to-day, fully as much as in the trying hours of the rebellion. From present appearances, the Presidential campaign will be narrowed down to the old conflict, Principle against Prejudice, Truth against Ignorance and Error, and will differ from the late contest rather in form than intensity or violence. Already the leaders of the Democracy have buried truth in the background, basing their confidence upon their skill in cajoling the masses, converting the seeming into reality, and circulating falsehoods. In the light of the experience acquired during the war, we are prepared for the worst, whether that worst assume the shape of frantic appeals to passion, willful misconstruction of clearly defined measures, or futile efforts to fan into a flame the sectional feeling between the East and the West—for any and all of these we are prepared, and we may also add that we are prepared to respond to the utterances of passion with arguments which we trust will prove as effectual as our bullets and bayonets proved during the war.

The battle is not of our making; on the contrary, it is opened by those who, failing with the sword, instead of evincing an appreciation of the mercy extended them by a too generous foe, unblushingly endeavor to appropriate to themselves ballots where, if they received their just deserts, they would be wanting of ballots.

FORM GRANT CLUBS.

Harvesting being well progressed, our friends in the country should lose no time in forming GRANT clubs. The time has come, and the way to begin is simple enough. Whoever wishes to begin the work can do it by posting up something like the following notice:

FOR GRANT AND COLFAX.

We invite our fellow citizens of —— township (or ward, or election district, as the case may be) who favor the election of Grant and Colfax to unite with us in forming a Grant Club at ——, on —— the —— inst., at —— o'clock.

[Here follow the signatures.]

Whether the gathering be small or great be sure to business at once; select committees, which should be of the best workers and no holiday men, and appoint times for meeting. But above everything else, arrangements should be made for a complete canvass of the town or ward. Select a good Secretary who will correspond with the State Central Committee in Philadelphia, Hon. GALUSHA A. GROW, Chairman, from whom such instructions and advice be obtained, as will leave little to be desired in that line. Republicans everywhere—begin the work; and by way of encouraging others send to the COMMERCIAL a brief account of your meetings.

SHALL IT BE WIPED OUT?

The ratification of the Constitutional Amendment, known as the fourteenth article, is a consummation of which the people of this country, especially the Republican party, have great reason to be proud. But the Democrats propose to undo the work. How great a step backward they propose to take will be seen from the amendment itself, which is as follows:

"Joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

"Be it Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, [illegible]

[illegible]

SCHUYLER COLFAX,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
[illegible]
President of the Senate, pro tem.
Attest: EDWARD McPHERSON,
Clerk of the House of Representatives.
JOHN W. FORNEY,
Secretary of the Senate.

Hate for the spirit of freedom and equality latterly embodied in the organic law, hate for the public debt, [illegible] of which is also declared in this Constitution, hate for the civilization and Christianity expressed in the amendment, constitute reasons enough why the party that submitted itself to the dictation of the old rebel leaders and presents SEYMOUR and BLAIR for President and Vice President, should proclaim the purpose of wiping the amendment out and "restoring the Constitution as it was before the war." To the other weighty questions before the country is this: "Shall the Fourteenth amendment be wiped out or shall it stand?"

SECRETARY SEWARD.

The public was prepared to hear that Secretary SEWARD will support GRANT and COLFAX. The statement means a great deal. Mr. SEWARD is the representative of a numerous and influential class, on whose support Democratic leaders counted, and perhaps up to the meeting of the Tammany Convention, not without some reason. Mr. SEWARD since his entrance to public life has had a powerful body of friends, principally belonging to the commercial and business classes, whose influence reaches far beyond their votes,—many of them representatives of vast interests immediately affected by the administration of the government, and in an especial manner at the present moment, requiring the stability and peace which can be secured in no other way than by electing General GRANT to the Presidency. The statement in regard to Mr. SEWARD is important, inasmuch as it not only indicates the direction and volume of the tide that has set in, and is still rising, against the Tammany Ticket, but will assist materially to give it momentum and decisiveness. We shall expect with confidence to see Mr. SEWARD joined by other distinguished men, whose support for GRANT was not claimed as a necessary consequence until the Tammany Convention and the events immediately succeeding, practically revived the issues of [illegible], with such new features as would seem to compel every patriot to array himself under the banner of GRANT. War Democrats, Conservative Republicans, non partisan voters of every class and name, more especially of the great religious bodies, who, in moments of great public concernment, have given, and, as we have every reason to believe, will continue to give effective support to the cause of Freedom and Progress—these and a vast army sometimes denominated the "silent voters," it is now easy to see are moving as with one accord to prevent the consummation of the plans devised in Tammany Hall between the Democrats and rebel leaders.

Coupled with the statement concerning Mr. SEWARD is another to the effect that it is Mr. SEWARD's belief that before many days President JOHNSON will be found openly opposing the Tammany ticket. Strange and almost inexplicable, at first glance, as this would seem, it is by no means impossible; and the probability of the truth of the report receives support from the undoubted intention of Mr. SEWARD to oppose SEYMOUR and BLAIR. In Democratic circles in New York, where the development concerning Mr. SEWARD has caused consternation, the query that is uppermost is—is it probable that the Premier of the administration would take this stand without an understanding with the President? Mr. JOHNSON, it is well known, feels that he has been shabbily treated by the Democrats, for whom he has periled everything. Since he came to the head of the Government, the fact that he has been controlled almost wholly by his hates and a desire to punish his latest enemy, has been the principal characteristic of his conduct. Judging from Mr. JOHNSON's previous conduct, therefore, it is not difficult to understand that Mr. SEWARD's declaration for GRANT is but the forerunner of the President's, and indicative of the direction in which the power of the administration will be thrown.

Democracy and the Finances.

The Democratic papers are openly urging the issuing a flood of greenbacks according to the Pendleton plan, for the purpose, as they say, of making "good times." They denounce those who have money invested in Government bonds as leeches, and oppressors of the people and are holding out to the people the promise of a money millenium, in which every man will have as many greenbacks as he can carry.

To accomplish this they propose to elect Horatio Seymour and Frank P. Blair. Now Frank Blair was one of the fathers of the present system, and if he has changed at all it has been very recently; and Mr. Seymour has a policy of his own to which he is committed as solemnly as a man can be committed to anything. It is needless to say that his policy is the reverse in all particulars of that of Mr. Pendleton. Indeed the speech in which he enunciated it was delivered for the express purpose of setting the Democracy right upon this question. That speech and Belmont's money made him the nominee of the Democratic party. As every Democrat should know what he are voting for we give enough of Mr. Seymour's speech to show what is his policy.

On the 11th of March, 1868, Mr. Seymour, in a speech delivered before the New York State Convention, speaking of United States bonds, said:

"It is a mistake to suppose that they (bonds) are mostly held by capitalists. Large sums belonging to children and widows, under the order of the Courts or the action of Trustees, have been invested in Government bonds. The vast amounts held by fire and life insurance companies and savings banks ARE, IN FACT, HELD IN TRUST FOR AND ARE THE RELIANCE OF THE GREAT BODY OF THE ACTIVE BUSINESS OR LABORING MEN OR WOMEN. * * * * * * The whole amount held in the State of New York, in various forms of trust, will not fall below $300,000,000. If we look into other States we shall see that only a small share of these bonds are held by men known as capitalists, but they belong in fact, if not in form, to the business men, the active and the laboring classes of society. THE DESTRUCTION OF THEIR SECURITIES WOULD MAKE A WIDE-SPREAD RUIN AND DISTRESS, WHICH WOULD REACH INTO EVERY WORKSHOP AND EVERY DISTRICT, HOWEVER HUMBLE."

Remember it is the Democratic candidate for the Presidency who says the bonds are the "reliance of the great body of active business or laboring men or women," and that their destruction (by greenback inflation or otherwise) "would make a wide-spread ruin and distress that would reach into every workshop and every district, however humble."

Again, in the same speech, Mr. Seymour says:

"It is a mistake to suppose that the interests of the bondholders and the tax payers are antagonistic. The fact is overlooked that in order to make any saving by giving the bondholder a debased or worthless paper, we must bring upon ourselves disasters and dishonor which will cost us hundredfold what we can save. [illegible]."

"Debased currency!" Messrs. Democrats, that means the hundreds of millions of greenbacks you want. Will you get them? Let Seymour answer. In the same speech he says:

"If we, the Democracy, come into power there will be no discredit on our currency, [illegible]."

To clinch this matter and put his position beyond controversy, he said in his Cooper Institute speech, June 26, 1868, as follows:

"Of all the devices to cheat honest labor, to [illegible] honest industry, to [illegible] public morals, and to [illegible], none have been so hurtful as a shifting standard of a debased and lying currency. * * * * *

"If we debase the currency by undue issues, we shall equally perplex business and destroy sober industry, and make all prices mere matters of gambling tricks and chances. This will end as it did in the Southern Confederacy. At the outset the citizens of Richmond went to market with their money in their vest pockets, and brought back their dinners in their baskets; in the end they took their money in their baskets and took home their dinners in their vest pockets."

And again, in the same speech:

"[illegible]. But for that, we could borrow money as Great Britain does, at three per cent, and cut down taxation."

And in the same speech he says:

"If your claims were all wiped out to-morrow by an issue of greenbacks, it would not relieve the fear of perils: [illegible], our standard of value would still be shifting."

It is not difficult to see who will be cheated. Mr. Seymour's views upon the question were plainly expressed before he was nominated, and should he be elected and carry them out, it can not be said of him that he played the traitor. He means gold, and the Western orators of the party who are howling greenbacks, know it.

They are playing a most despicable game. If they are honest in their utterances they cannot support the nominees of their party.

Wade Hampton Again.

Wade Hampton has made another speech. The rebels in Charleston are so pleased with his revelations concerning the [illegible] and the election of Seymour and Blair that they wish to hear from him often. It was on the 25th that he made his speech to those who welcomed him home from New York. On the following evening he was called out again. He said Charleston was the place of all others first in his affections, and he told his listeners that the cause would yet be won.

[illegible]

It will be observed that the distinguished Democratic leader spoke only of drawing his sword in defense of his State, and the Union is nowhere spoken of. He spoke as he was in the habit of addressing his "Legion" when fighting to destroy the Government.

Twentieth Congressional District.

Hon. HENRY CLAY JOHNSON, of Crawford county, has been nominated by the Republican Conference of the Twentieth District for Congress. After nearly three hundred ballots, a Venango delegate proposed Mr. Johnson as a compromise candidate, and he received all the votes of Crawford and Clarion and two of the three of Venango county, thus nominating him on first ballot. The Mercer delegation protested against the taking of a new man, claiming that the nomination belonged to their county, and withdrew from the conference, but it is thought will support Mr. Johnson, who is personally not objectionable to them. Mr. Johnson was a member of the State Legislature during 1863 and 1864, and during his last term filled the Speaker's chair of the House with dignity and impartiality. He has been identified with the Republican party from its organization, and has taken an active part in its advancement in his county and district. As his election is certain, the district will have in him a capable and attentive representative.

Thaddeus Stevens and the Gold Question.

Hon. Thaddeus Stevens has written a letter to the Lancaster Express, under date of Thursday last, in which he says the gold question has been settled by the passage of the compromise funding bill, which, however, has not yet been signed by the President. Mr. Stevens says the question as to what currency the five-twenties were payable in has been discussed in a vulgar manner, and confesses, so far as he was concerned, in a temper and style that were unbecoming. The whole national loan, under the operation of the funding bill, if it becomes a law, will become payable in coin.

THE Seymour and Blair rowdies at St. Joseph, Mo., on Wednesday insulted Generals Grant and Sherman by yelling, blowing the horns and otherwise disgracing themselves, when these distinguished gentlemen appeared on the balcony of the hotel in response to the calls of their friends outside. The rowdies would not permit General Sherman to speak. It was a characteristic exhibition of rebel copperhead ruffianism. General Sherman remarked that neither General Grant nor himself was to be intimidated by large crowds of that kind—they had seen many of them and knew all about them—but as for the blackguard who addressed him particularly insulting language, he would say if he was a citizen of the place he would feel it his duty to duck the scamp in the river.

AT the State Convention of the County School Superintendents in Harrisburg, on Thursday, State Superintendent Wickersham asserted that more interest is now being taken in schools than ever before. During 1867, $[illegible] were spent in the erection of school houses and during the present year the expenditures in the same direction will probably reach $2,000,000, while the estimates for the following year reach $2,500,000.

WANTED.—[illegible]—New York Herald.

Will the Pittsburgh Post place on record its indorsement of the amendment, or explain why it will not?

IT is an instructive fact that Massachusetts five per cent. gold bonds are selling from six to seven per cent. more than United States bonds. It is unnecessary to go into any explanation of the causes that make this difference.

GENERAL AND PARTICULAR.

Edmund H. Yates, the well-known English novelist, has applied for the benefit of the bankrupt act. His debts amount to over £7,000. He states the cause of his insolvency to be "the insufficiency of his income." Was it not the excess of his outcome?

A Canada paper, speaking of the travel this summer, says: "The tide of American travel is finding its way each year in larger volume down our St. Lawrence and up the Saguenay, and this, too, must steadily increase. The accommodation afforded the traveler is now of a very excellent character, as well on this lake and upper St. Lawrence as below Quebec and Montreal."

Twelve hundred bales of hay were purchased in New York last week, for Liverpool. This is a new article of export. The drouth in England is the cause of the movement.

The cotton crop is estimated at about three millions of bales, which is decidedly encouraging.

Everything seems to justify the recent prediction of a Western journal that the food crop of the West—of corn and wheat more especially, the potato being below the average, as the abstract of the report of the Commissioner of Agriculture states—will be extraordinarily large during the present season. Since 1860 there has not been a full crop.

Acting under the rule of mutual murder lately agreed on between the contending generals in Hayti, thirty prisoners, surrendered and captured in a little battle of the civil war near Jacmel, have just been shot to death. The King of Dahomey frequently slaughters hundreds, the difference arising from the fact that the King has more of the raw material. The instinct is just the same.

Among the interesting sights in Saratoga, few attract more attention than a Canadian woman, who has three little girls, born at once. They are about fifteen or eighteen months old, and look exactly alike. She has a carriage in which she draws them about, and whenever she stops for a short time she is sure to be surrounded by a crowd, who admire her family and occasionally make her some presents.

A long, lank, and evidently hungry Canadian went into a store in North Troy, Vermont, and sucked twenty-five eggs, including one bad one, in less than a minute. He followed this installment with a copious draught from a whisky bottle in his pocket, and declared himself ready to dispose of nine dozen immediately.

POLITICAL.

The Hon. T. W. Gross, a prominent Indianapolis Democrat, repudiates Seymour and Blair, and comes out for Grant and Colfax.

Now, boys, three cheers for Grant and Colfax—hip!

Hurrah! Hurrah! the Boys in Blue are coming in their might,
In a firm column, firm and true, to battle for the right;
Brave boys are they, and well they know the country's [illegible] word:
The air resounds, where'er they go, with cheers for [illegible].
CHORUS.
Hurrah! Hurrah! [illegible]
[illegible]
Hurrah! Hurrah!! Hurrah!!!

The Philadelphia Ledger says that "while everybody expects almost all kinds of business to be slack at this season of the year, there is scarcely any doubt that general business is in a more healthful condition now than it was a year ago. We hear fewer complaints of extreme dullness, and failures are less imminent than they were during 1867." To this statement need only be added the remark that the favorable prospect spoken of, is due mainly to the fact that the Presidential canvass wears such a decided aspect, indicating the election of Grant and Colfax.

At a Seymour and Blair ratification meeting held in Cincinnati last week, Pugh said that "the Democratic party demanded that the National banks be abolished." Hampton, Toombs & Co. strike for this and much more—for demanding the abolition of the Government altogether, and the substitution of the Confederacy. But Pugh, Blair & Co. will come to it soon enough, however.

The Charleston Mercury, the exponent of rebellion beyond all others, says "this Presidential election will in all probability settle the political destiny not only of the Southern, but of the United States for the next half century." That is precisely what the supporters of Grant and Colfax mean.

The Boston Democrats have not yet ratified the Tammany nominations. The starch appears to have been taken entirely out of them. But all over the South the rebels have ratified, and keep on ratifying. An extensive screw is said to be loose all over New England. The most [illegible] thing is Blair's nomination, but [illegible] "Kickerie" so familiar in New England schools.

The Augusta Chronicle declares that the bargain whereby one Republican and one Democratic United States Senator was elected, will damage Seymour and Blair. Hill, one of the Senators elect, has come out for Grant.

In the last Democratic Convention every delegate from the Southern States was a secessionist and had been a rebel. Not one of the entire number had been a loyal man during the war. Hence the nomination of Seymour and Blair, and the revolutionary platform. The ticket once elected, an administration will follow that will bring Toombs, Cobb, (Floyd is dead and [illegible]) Wise & Co. to the front again.

Old Blair, at Silver Springs, it is said, has selected the lunatic asylum where the Blairs expect to confine Seymour while Frank goes into the White House. The old fellow is said to be in high glee, never doubting if the election goes right his boy Frank will succeed Andy. Great are the Blairs!

Supporters of Grant—Sherman, Sheridan, Thomas, Meade, Farragut, and eight out of ten other loyal officers and men who fought under the stars and stripes during the Rebellion. Supporters of Seymour—Beauregard, Forrest, Hampton, Semmes, Toombs, and nine-tenths of the rebels who fought under the stars and bars. This fact needs no comment.

A correspondent, writing to the Tribune from Niagara Falls, says: "You may be interested to hear that, in our town, which polls about six hundred votes, there were over sixty voters who intended to vote for Mr. Chase, had he been nominated by the New York Convention, but have decided to vote for Grant and Colfax since the nomination of Seymour. Quite a number of them were War Democrats. They will not touch anything tinged with copper."

STATE POLITICS.

The Dauphin county Republican Convention will be held in Harrisburg, on Tuesday, August 18th.

There are some half dozen candidates for the Republican nomination for Mayor of Harrisburg.

The Democratic Convention of Dauphin county will be held at Millersburg, on Wednesday, the 12th day of August.

A Grant and Colfax club has been organized in Johnstown, with the following officers: H. Boggs, President; Alexander Kennedy, First Vice President; Stephen E. Varner, Second Vice President, J. M. Rowman, Recording Secretary; J. H. Fisher, Corresponding Secretary, and William Coshon, Treasurer. An Executive Committee, to consist of one person from each ward and borough, and each of the surrounding districts, was ordered. The second story of Suppes's building, on Clinton street, has been rented and furnished as the headquarters, and Monday evening fixed as the regular meeting night of the Club during the campaign.

The annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Equal Rights League will be held in the city of Williamsport, on Tuesday, August 11, 1868, at 10 o'clock A. M. A call to the colored people of the State has been issued, inviting "every lover of complete enfranchisement" to attend this meeting.

SINCE the Tammany Convention, reports from the South have been growing from bad to worse very rapidly, and all accounts are exceedingly discouraging to the friends of law and order. The demonstrations of friendship toward prominent ex-rebels and the concessions made to them at the New York Convention, have resulted in the reorganization, in many localities, of the disbanded regiments and battalions of the rebel army, under the name of Seymour Knights for cavalry, and Blair Guards for infantry.

THE Republicans of Maine are preparing for an active campaign, and are thoroughly aroused to the importance of the coming election in September. They mean to give Gov. Chamberlain at least 20,000 majority and make it as much more as possible. The New York nominations disgusted many of the Democrats, and they will take no active part in the campaign, feeling that the election in that State is a foregone conclusion.

OH! HO!—The Terre Haute Express of the 30th inst., says that Frank Blair, in a speech made in Gilman's cooper shop, in that city, declared he "would rather sleep with a nigger than a Democrat." The Express adds that "hundreds of our citizens of both political parties will swear that they heard Frank use the exact language above quoted."

THE reception of Hon. Schuyler Colfax at South Bend, Indiana, Friday, was one of the most flattering demonstrations ever made in honor of any public man. It shows the affectionate regard entertained for him by those who know him best, and his remarkable popularity with the masses.

THE Financial Bulletin, referring to the financial acts of Congress, remarks: Taken as a whole, the financial legislation of Congress may be regarded as favorable, and as tending to the removal or readjustment of the burdens of taxation that press most severely upon industry.

PERSONAL.

—There is a rumor that the brother of the late Prince Consort wants to marry Victoria, and that Victoria is willing.

—Prince Dejatch Alamayou, the son of King Theodore, arrived at Plymouth, England, on the 14th ult., in charge of Captain Speedy, and attended by an Abyssinian man servant, Skelaba Kasta. He is an interesting little lad; tall for his age, seven years last April, and already much delighted with England, exclaiming, "Oh, this is a beautiful country; I will never go back." A little Abyssinian slave girl, a protege of Sir R. Napier, was brought by the same vessel.

—At the banquet given to Mr. Bancroft, at the Heidelberg Museum, the most illustrious professors of that famous German university overflowed with protestations of their admiration and love for the great trans-Atlantic Republic. Mr. Bancroft was so deeply moved that his voice trembled when he commenced returning thanks for the enthusiastic welcome that had been extended to him.

—Jules Favre has found an interesting document in the shape of a petition drawn up in 1840, and praying King Louis Philippe to have Louis Napoleon Bonaparte court-martialed and shot as an enemy to the peace and tranquility of France. Among the signers are one of the Emperor's present Ministers, one of his ex-Ministers, half a dozen ultra Bonapartistic members of the Corps Legislatif, and Lieutenant Colonel (now Marshal) Canrobert.

—The barbarian queen now in Paris wears at table a scarlet peplum, Turkish trowsers, tight at the ankle and striped with gold, and a real diadem, having a blue gauze veil which she drapes most tastefully from the back round her chin, leaving a great deal of the soft gauze to wave behind among her ebon tresses, of which she has a large quantity. Her state attire is composed of a tunic of golden cloth, a peplum of the same, most eccentric looking jewelry of diamonds and gold, and the eternal diadem which she puts on as soon as she gets out of bed. When she goes out in this fashion, her son carries a long sword before her, held upright as a candle.

—General Hartwell, a Massachusetts man recently appointed a Judge of the highest Hawaiian Court, will sail for his new home on the 15th of August. It seems that this Court conducts its proceedings in English, and that regular reports are made of its decisions.

—The fourth Lord Lisle, who died near Exeter, in England, on the seventh instant, in the eighty-sixth year of his age, from fatigue in superintending a festive dinner given by him to twenty poor persons, was the grandson of the first Lord, who sat in the House of Commons in the reign of George I., or more than one hundred and forty years ago.

General Negley—What a Volunteer Thinks.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

There is nothing so treacherous as the memory of the ingrate when his selfishness is served by a draught of oblivion. I can remember when those who pretend to deride General Negley, now that he is a candidate for Congress, gave him the credit of singleness of purpose in his endeavors to sustain the Government. From the time he raised his brigade in our midst until his admirable method of disciplining, mobilizing and provisioning his troops won the praise of every one who visited his camp, or who observed them on the march, he was universally pronounced an earnest, energetic, hard-working commander, and loyal men of all parties testified in a thousand ways their profound respect and good will for the General. The same men, or at least some of them, now oppose him. Either they must forget the perils of five years of bloodshed, or they are no better than the wing of their party which delighted in rebel victories. It seems to me that the easiest and simplest way of testifying our gratitude to those who defended the Government in the hour of its peril, and the easiest way to sustain the Government to-day, is to vote for tried and trusty men. When the ex-rebel Generals shape the views and nominations of the Democratic party, it is time we looked about us to oppose them with men who have met them before, and who know precisely how to meet them again, which reminds me of the General's reply to a slab-sided Kentuckian who was caught in Tennessee and who complained of being deprived of liberty. He wanted to go to his family, and complained dreadfully of the condition he was reduced to, in the same breath talking the strongest sort of treason. "So do I want to go home," said the General, "all these men you see here want to go home. But you and your infernal treason brought us down here, and we wont go home to our families until you are whipped into order and quietness. We are able to do that much at least, whether we succeed in making [illegible] loyal men of you or not." And he was pretty good at "whipping them in." There is not a [illegible] of all the aristocratic, secession cities, during his government of it who will not affirm that the proud dames and sires of that city were compelled to yield him and his troops a respectful obedience. And should any of the fire eaters (for they are beginning to chaw fire down there pretty lively, I see by all accounts,) insult him in Congress, he will do as General Rosecrans requested him at Murfreesboro. He will "drive them" the way he routed Polk's entire division. I went into the war opposed to the General politically, and personally. However, I got cured of my prejudice by observing him and comparing him with regular army officers; he was kind to us, kept us in good clothing and provisions, and was incessantly looking after our wants. I have no doubt every man who served under him will give him his support. But what arose me is to see men who applauded my action in going out now turning round and joining sides with the very man we fought against. It looks to me like as if they were all rebels together now, and if trouble comes again, (though I hope it won't), I want to be on the side of the Government. All the talk about banks and reconstruction can't alter this view. What I fought for with a gun and knapsack, I'll sustain with my vote, and I don't know a better man to give it to than my old commander. I have seen him accomplish things that McCook, Rousseau and Woods failed in; not one of them could do anything with the Bloody Nineteenth of Illinois. When it was just on the point of being mustered out Negley took it in hand, and the demoralized regiment made for itself a glorious record afterwards. He always said good officers made a good regiment. That's my idea precisely. Good officers will make a good government. I know who I am voting for in voting for a man who threw his whole heart into the contest when men were wanted, and there is a large number of his old command in the city who will do the same thing, "irrespective of political parties."

Glass House and Rowley's Ripples—Depth of Water in the River.

UNITED STATES SURVEY STEAMER TIDIOUTE,
PITTSBURGH, PA., August 1, 1868.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

I would desire to correct a statement almost daily published in the papers in regard to the depth of water in the channel of the Ohio from your city. The shoalest bar hence to the mouth of the river was formerly "Glass House Ripple," two and one-half miles below Pittsburgh, but since an improved channel has been made down the left of Brunot's Island, past the mouth of Chartiers creek, where formerly numerous rocks blockaded the low water navigation, Glass House is not run.

So it is a mistake to say three feet to-day on Glass House, when there is in reality scant two feet, the former depth being found only on the other side of the island. The new channel to the left was explored last summer by Captain Rowley, United States Consulting Pilot, engaged on the Ohio River Improvement. With the assistance of the Engineer Corps on this steamer, under orders from W. Milnor Roberts, Superintending Engineer, he laid out the work, which was executed by Captain John Rodgers, and who made a greatly improved low water channel.

As yet the new channel has no name, and in deference to Captain Rowley's long years of service on the river, and "by right of discovery," in this instance, Mr. Siebeneck, of the Chronicle, and others have proposed to baptize the place "Rowley's Ripple," although it is likely that gentleman might decline the use of his name so near "Horse Tail," (the ripple next below). The name is good enough, and would correct our river geography. "Glass House" is known all along the river, and as the statements in regard to the depth there are taken from your paper by all the reporters and rivermen, it creates a misunderstanding and should be corrected.

Another matter. It is not generally understood what is the real depth in the river, the marks in Pittsburgh not being set very correctly. This steamer, drawing fifteen inches of water, passed down the river last fall when the metal marks at Pittsburgh showed four inches less than nothing. Our soundings and charts show at all times a foot better water than the marks exhibit, but this difference is, at low water, frequently to be found only in a very narrow channel, requiring skillful pilotage, and should not be relied upon for large or wide boats, the depths shown by the marks being sufficiently close for them. The Allegheny marks don't mean anything. It would be as well to set up marks at McKee's rocks showing thirty feet depth, the water being about that deep there, at low water, and call that the channel depth. The marks should always refer to the depth at the shoalest bars.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
THOMAS P. ROBERTS,
Assistant U. S. Civil Engineer.

A son of ex-Judge William B. Reed, of Philadelphia, undertook to commit suicide last Thursday morning at Sheffield, Warren county.

FROM ROCHESTER, PA.

Railway Accidents—Festival—Accident and Narrow Escape.

Special Correspondence of Pittsburgh Commercial.

ROCHESTER, PA, July 31, 1868.

A man named William McBride had his foot severely smashed, yesterday afternoon, while attempting to cross before the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Express. He was taken to the Doncaster House. His toes had to be amputated. Another man, who is deaf and dumb, was knocked off the track near the same place to-day. His injuries, however, are not of a serious nature.

The ladies of this place gave a complimentary ice cream festival, on Thursday evening, for the benefit of the Rochester Cornet Band, which proved a perfect success, the receipts being over two hundred dollars. The festival was to be held on Wednesday evening, but had to be postponed on account of the inclemency of the weather. An accident occurred on that evening, which might have proved serious. The Beaver Falls Cornet Band (who had volunteered their services to play during the evening), together with the Rochester Band, were seated on seats elevated from the ground. All at once the seats gave way, precipitating them to the ground. The oil in the lamps, which were used on the occasion, saturated their clothing, which caught fire. For a while there was the greatest confusion. Three or four horns were bruised, and one of the members of the Rochester Band, Mr. Undy, of Beaver Falls, hurt his back. Otherwise there were none injured. During the festival, on Thursday evening, the best of order and good humor prevailed. The ladies certainly deserve great credit for the manner in which everything was conducted.

CITY CONVENTION.

The Republicans of the City of Pittsburgh are hereby invited to attend Primary Meetings in their respective wards on

In the Twenty-third ward at the usual place for holding elections in late Peebles township, under the supervision of Joseph Boals, James B. Palmer and James McKibben.

Every supporter of GRANT and COLFAX and the city nominees is earnestly invited to take part in said election, and those officers are hereby particularly urged to use all possible diligence to preserve the purity of the ballot-box and secure a fair return of the votes cast.

The election officers, after the votes are counted, will make up duplicate returns thereof, one of which, with the list of voters, shall be placed in the ballot-boxes, and the other taken possession of by the Return Judge; and the Return Judges of the several wards shall present the same at a meeting of Return Judges, to be held at the Common Council Chamber, on TUESDAY, August 18th, at 10 o'clock A. M., when they shall cause the same to be added together, and declare the result, the person receiving the highest vote for each office to be declared the nominee.

The Return Judges, at their meeting, will appoint the City Executive Committee to serve for the ensuing year.

The Committee desires to call the attention of the Election Boards to the following resolution, which was adopted at the last meeting of the Committee:

NEW BRIGHTON, PA

An "Old Time Rally" of the Democracy.

The Speakers and their Speeches—A Lamentable Failure.

Special Correspondence of Pittsburgh Commercial.
New Brighton, Pa., July 31, 1868.

For a week past may have been seen in this and the neighboring towns, and through the country for miles around, flaming posters announcing that a Grand Old Time Rally of Democrats was to be held in this place on the [illegible] of July, 1868. A long list of distinguished foreign and domestic speakers was given, and evidently much exertion was used to render the occasion large, and one long to be remembered by a grateful and Democratic community. The day and hour for this grand rally—"the old time rally"—at length, on the weary and slow moving wheels of Time, rolled around. The Marshals of the day and the brass band were promptly on the ground. The posters announced that a procession would be formed at six o'clock P. M., which would march to the various bridges leading across Beaver river into New Brighton.

About seven o'clock the band, followed by a procession of twenty men, arrived from the Old Brighton bridge, in front of the [illegible] House, where they were met by two mounted men. One of these was a tolerably respectable looking old gentleman, in a suit of plain black clothes, and a large amount of red sash wound about his waist and shoulders. The other mounted man did not look so well. His taste in dress and the fitness of things generally was evidently very sadly neglected, and the manner in which he sat on his horse gave strong indication that he cared little for appearances. His yellow linen coat sweated through in many places, contrasted strangely with the scarlet sash in which he was wrapped.

From the hotel the procession was led by the Marshals to the public square, where, after a brief halt, the order "Fall in" was given, and the procession of twenty-nine persons marched to the [illegible] bridge to meet the Fallston delegation, and then the procession marched back to the public square with twenty-three men! [illegible]

BEDFORD SPRINGS.

The Accommodations of this Popular Summer Resort—How Visitors Enjoy Themselves—Virtue of the Bedford Waters.

Special Correspondence of Pittsburgh Commercial.
Bedford Springs, Pa., July 30, 1868.

The first question that arises in the mind of one who has never visited this Summer Resort is, what provision has been made for the accommodation of visitors? We answer by giving a description of the principal buildings. The main building is one hundred and sixty-two feet in length by sixty-two in breadth. The front has a colonnade extending along its entire length, supported by massive columns, inclosed by iron railing, and finished in the center by a Grecian portico consisting of six columns supporting a beautiful pediment. This building contains a bar room, office, receiving room, parlor, dining, drawing, and ball rooms, together with sixty chambers. There are three other large buildings, three and four stories high, each of which is more than one hundred feet long, with balconies running along each story, laid out in chambers, and suits of rooms for families. Several other buildings used as dormitories for bathing, promenading, amusement and recreation, complete the group of this sylvan retreat. The valley between the hills is tastefully laid out, and shaded with beautiful trees, while terraced walks are cut along the sides of Constitution Hill, affording an easy ascent to its summit, where a pavilion has been erected, from which an enchanting landscape view is presented to the eye.

About four hundred and fifty persons can be accommodated at the Springs, and the number here at present is larger by one hundred and fifty than it was at the same date last year. More than five hundred names have been already registered, and the arrivals continue to exceed the departures, leaving about three hundred and fifty on the ground. Philadelphia, Baltimore and Pittsburgh are largely represented, but there are visitors here from Boston to Charleston, from St. Paul to New Orleans, from New York to St. Louis. The pulpit, the bench, the bar, the counting room, the factory, and the farm have been forsaken, and their occupants have, under common promptings, congregated here. Judges Grier and Porter, ex-Governor Curtin, Colonel McClure, Hon. T. Marshall, Rev. Drs. Chambers and Conrad with their families are among the number here at present.

Dec. 21, 1864.

MR. CLARK: I am acquainted with several persons who have used Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, and from their testimony I am convinced that the medicine possesses considerable merit. I should be glad to recommend it to my patients who may need such a medicine, and also to use it, when occasion may require, in my own practice; but our code of ethics, to which I firmly subscribed, disallows me to use a medicine the ingredients of which I am unacquainted with. Most manufacturers of proprietary medicines do not hesitate to furnish their formulas to physicians, and if you are one of those, please send me your formula, and it is quite likely that it will lead to the sale of a few bottles, to say the least. I would suggest that it would be advisable to make depositories of the medicine in more places than you have in this State. There are many large, flourishing towns, where your medicine cannot yet be found, and where, I have no doubt, from what I know of the medicine, they would have a large sale. If you do not wish to have your complete formula known, please state the ingredients composing it.

O. O. THWING, M. D.

"A VALUABLE THING."

[From James M. Clark, Baldwinsville, N. Y.]
BALDWINSVILLE, July 12, 1868.

GENTS: Allow me to say that, although, as a general thing, I have a pretty poor opinion of patent medicine, still I am disposed to regard your "Coe's Dyspepsia Remedy" as a valuable thing. From boyhood I have been troubled with the most terrible turns of sick headache that ever fell to the lot of suffering humanity, and, although I have swallowed almost every known specific for this disease, none has ever tended to permanently benefit me but this "Coe's Dyspepsia Cure." I have not yet taken quite a bottle, and since I have commenced its use I have not had even a symptom of the headache. This is two months since. Previous to that I usually had it at least once a week, sometimes twice.

Respectfully, JAMES M. CLARK.

"THE BEST ARTICLE."

[From T. J. Rand, Muskegon, Mich.]
MUSKEGON, MICH., May 27, 1867.

MESSRS. C. G. CLARK & CO.:
Having used Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, I can recommend it as a cure after having suffered for ten years, and tried many other remedies without receiving any relief. I believe it to be the best article before the people for the cure of dyspepsia. Yours, &c.,

T. J. RAND,
Banker, Muskegon, Mich.

"A PERFECT CURE."

[From J. H. Moulton, Battle Creek, Mich.]
BATTLE CREEK, May 5, 1868.

MESSRS. ANDREWS & GRANDEUS, Druggists:
In reply to your inquiry as to results in using the bottle of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure we purchased from you, we take the first opportunity to state it as having used it for indigestion, I can certify that in my case it has proved itself a perfect cure.

I most cheerfully and earnestly recommend it to every one who has suffered from the ravages and tortures of this terrible disease. Yours truly,

JOHN F. MOULTON.

"INSTANT RELIEF."

[From J. W. Bid, M. D., Delaware, Ohio.]
MESSRS. COWDELL & CO., Druggists:
In reply to your inquiry as to results in using the bottle of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure we purchased from you, we take the first opportunity to state that, for a long time, I am an old dyspeptic, and have tried almost everything in the line of prescriptions and formulas, from physicians and books, and never found anything to equal Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. The first time I took of the Cure, I felt almost instant relief, and went about my business in a happier condition than I had for years before. After finishing one bottle, I arrived at the happy conclusion that I was cured, and had it not been for my own imprudence in eating, I doubt whether the disease would ever have returned. I most cheerfully and earnestly recommend it to every one who has suffered from the ravages and horrors of this terrible disease. Yours, truly,

J. W. BID, M. D.

"VERY MODEST."

[From H. M. T. Smith, Dunkirk, N. Y.]
DUNKIRK, N. Y., May 1, 1868.

GENTS:—I believe your circular. I know of two parties—whose of prominent citizens in this place—who have been greatly benefited, if not cured, by the use of your Dyspepsia Cure, but they will not consent to the public use of their names. And thus the matter rests, with a steadily increasing sale.

Yours, respectfully, H. M. T. SMITH.

"REPUTATION GAINING."

[From Rev. Allen Crowell, Brookville, Pa.]
LUTHERSBURG, Pa., May 2, 1867.

MR. JOSEPH FLEMING:
SIR:—"Coe's Dyspepsia Cure" is gaining a reputation amongst our people. The medicine already used is having the desired effect. A friend wishes me to get a bottle for him, for which I send you $1. Send to my address, as soon as possible.

Yours, &c., REV. D. ALLEN CROWELL,
Brookville, Jefferson Co., Pa.

Is Your Disease Rheumatism?

Many persons supposing they are suffering from this disease, have applied Liniments, Plasters, and other Rheumatic Remedies without obtaining any relief, when in fact the cause of pain is a derangement of the Kidneys. These are small organs, but very important, and any obstruction or interference with its functions are indicated by pain in the back and loins, languor and weakness, difficulty in voiding and unnatural color of the urine. A Diuretic should at once be resorted to.

DR. SARGENT'S
Diuretic or Backache Pills,
Can be relied upon for these purposes; they have a direct influence on the cells of the kidneys, assists nature in relieving them of any foreign particles, and stimulates them to a healthy and vigorous action.

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills,
Contain nothing injurious, being composed of entirely vegetable remedies; they do not sicken nor gripe—on the contrary they act as a gentle tonic and restore tone to the system. They are recommended by all who have tried them.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

SATURDAY EVENING, August 1.

We are now in the midsummer dullness and stagnation. Trade languishes—money is abundant, but there is no enterprises or ventures of pith or moment to invite its employment. Gold is firm at 145. Governments are very weak. The transactions in export bonds are light, which continue to be moderately dealt in by the foreign banking houses, who are enabled by the advance in gold to trade on the market for a moderate profit. The new 5-20s remain steady, with trifling sales, the price is maintained, in sympathy with the advance in gold and the great ease in money, which enables holders to carry them at 2@3 per cent. interest. The present unsettled state of public opinion in regard to the payment and funding of the bonds, and the growing feeling that neither party are prepared to stand up to the original agreement made when the loans were taken, has stopped all investment demand. Large investors are buying railroad bonds, and small buyers of Governments are funding their money or placing it in savings banks, in preference to taking bonds on which they may be forced to take 4 or 4½ per cent. interest.

In the East money still continues in superabundant supply at three per cent. on Governments and three and four on mixed collaterals, while commercial paper is scarce, owing to the entire absence of speculative activity in trade. All the signs of the times are almost conclusively against anything like monetary stringency at any time this year, although a moderately good demand for money at six and seven per cent. is likely to be experienced in October, but at these rates the supply cannot fail to be ample. The conditions affecting the money market have changed materially since this time last year, and sufficient importance has not yet been attached to these changes in the causes influencing supply and demand.

—The New York railway share market is languid and lower. Transactions are very limited, and the Stock Exchange almost forsaken. At a meeting of the Erie Railway Company held on Friday, Mr. John S. Eldridge resigned his position as President, and Mr. Jay Gould was elected to fill the vacancy thus created, while Mr. William M. Tweed, of this city, was elected to the seat at the board rendered vacant by the retirement of Mr. Eldridge, and Mr. Charles C. Sisson, of Jersey City, was elected in the place of Mr. James S. Whitney, resigned. This change in the Presidency of the company will, it is understood, result in perfect harmony in all the details of its management, and Mr. Gould, as one of the most able and experienced railway managers in the country, will doubtless command for the property of the Erie Company in the future a greater degree of public confidence than it has hitherto shared.

[illegible]

—Governments are dull and drooping. Opinion is divided about the future value of these securities. Some parties are selling at the low figures, while others are eagerly buying, holding to the conviction that the indications are favorable to higher prices, notwithstanding prevailing stagnation and adverse influences, for these will doubtless soon give place to a better state of feeling and renewed activity.

James T. Brady & Co., Bankers, corner of Fourth and Wood streets, furnish the annexed comparative range of prices for government securities:

Provisions at Cincinnati.

From the circular of George W. Phillips, Jr., we learn that the inactivity which characterized the provision market at the date of my last, continued up to Wednesday, when some orders were received from Baltimore and other distributing points, and these, together with favorable advices from New Orleans, caused a decidedly firmer market and enabled holders to establish an advance on most articles. PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL,
SATURDAY EVENING, August 1, 1868.

During the week the state of trade has undergone no change worthy of special mention. Transactions are extremely limited, and orders very small in amount. The flour market is moderately active, with light stocks of choice articles. For bacon there is a moderate demand, and the market is firm at quotations. There is very little doing in any other articles of produce, and receipts continue light, but mostly adequate to meet all current wants. Since our last we note as follows: Flour 611 bbls; apples [illegible] bbls; cheese 231 boxes; corn 547 sacks; wheat 450 sacks; rye 17 sacks; oats [illegible] sacks, and butter 31 packages.

We quote as follows, which are the current wholesale store prices, unless otherwise noted:

APPLES—Choice may be quoted at $3 50@4 25 ℔ barrel. A few baskets of extra assorted sold at a shade higher.

ASHES—We quote pearls at 10c; common soda ash at 4½c, and refined at 5c ℔ ℔.

LIME—Sales at $2 ℔ barrel for white.

BUTTER—Under light receipts the market rules firmer; and choice articles are selling readily at 35c from store.

EGGS—We quote those warranted good at 20c, and others 18c ℔ doz.

BACON, LARD, &C—Market moderately active, and unchanged. We quote shoulders 13½c; clear sides 18½c; rib sides 16½c; sugar cured hams at 21@[illegible]; dried beef 21½c; lard 19c ℔ ℔, and mess pork $29 50 ℔ barrel.

LARD OIL—We quote extra No. 1 lard oil at $1 40 ℔ gall, and No. 2 at $1 25 ℔ gall.

CHEESE—Market quiet and steady at 15c for factory; 14c for Hamburg and Western Reserve; 16@17c for Goshen, and 18c ℔ ℔ for Sweitzer.

POTATOES—Choice Ohio potatoes, of large growth, sell slowly from store at $1 00@1 25 ℔ barrel. Those grown in our own vicinity at $1 50@1 75 ℔ bush.

DRIED FRUITS—There is very little doing. Apples are plenty and dull at 5½@6c ℔ ℔. Choice peaches are scarce, and may be quoted at 12½@13½c ℔ ℔.

HAY—New hay, from country wagons, sells at $20@21 ℔ ton. Old light pressed sold at $22@24 ℔ ton.

SEED—There is no movement in clover or timothy seed, and prices entirely nominal.

BEESWAX—Not much offering and very little inquiry. Small lots from store at 35@40c ℔ ℔.

CORN MEAL—Demand light at former prices, say $1 10@1 15 ℔ bush.

FLOUR—We have no change to note in flour, except that the market is firmer, with light stocks and a fair local demand. Choice brands of old wheat are about exhausted, and new wheat flour will have to be relied upon to meet the wants of the market. We continue to quote choice Milwaukee brands at $10 60@10 75; good Wisconsin brands $10 25@10 50, and old winter wheat brands $10 75@11 75 ℔ bbl. There is a good demand for the articles now turned out by the mills, and we quote first quality $11 in barrels, and $10 70 in sacks ℔ bbl; second quality, wholesale, in barrels $10 50, and in sacks $10 20 ℔ bbl.

GRAIN—New wheat is arriving in small lots from farmers in our own neighborhood, but as yet the market is unsettled, and it is difficult to determine at what figure prices will settle down for future delivery. Dealers are confident that there is no money in the business at present views of farmers, and are determined to hold off until the facts in regard to the harvest have their legitimate effect. Dealers are offering $2 00@2 05 for red wheat. Our millers have been pretty well supplied with new Southern wheat. We hear of offers for new rye at $1 50@1 55 ℔ bushel. No old rye offering. There is very little movement in corn, and no quotable change apparent. We quote choice from first hands at $1 05, and from store and Elevator $1 05@1 10 ℔ bushel. Dealers are offering 60c for oats, but we have not learned of any sales at these figures. We quote old oats selling from store at 65@66c ℔ bushel. There is hardly any coming in at present. Small sales of barley at $1 25@1 30 ℔ bushel.

Same time 1867	647,908	91,417	249,248

BUSINESS.

The market during the week was dull with a large falling off in sales as compared with the earlier part of the month. During most of the week buyers and sellers were apart in their views. This will account for the limited amount of sales. The Eastern markets were similarly situated.

CRUDE RECEIPTS.

There was a light increase in the receipts over the previous week. Since our last general review the amount received was 18,181 bbls against 13,668 bbls, for the week ending July 25, being an increase of 4,513 bbls for the week.

The receipts from all points from January 1st to date were 662,147 bbls against 647,908 bbls for the same period in 1867, being an increase this year of 14,239 bbls.

EXPORTS REFINED.

The week's exports were as follows: Per Pennsylvania Central Railroad, 4,734 bbls; Allegheny Valley Railroad, 13,566 bbls. Total, 18,300 bbls, against [illegible] bbls for the week previous. Increase for the week, [illegible] bbls.

The entire exports by rail from January 1st to date were 347,031 bbls, against 330,865 bbls for the same time in 1867, showing an increase for the present year of 16,166 bbls.

SALES.

The week's sales were small, as follows: Crude 15,000 bbls; refined 16,500 bbls; total 31,500 bbls, against 52,500 bbls; being a falling off during the week of [illegible]

SATURDAY'S TRANSACTIONS—The oil market was firm for both descriptions. Holders of crude were asking 14½c and refusing to sell for less. Buyers were offering 14c, but were unable to obtain any at that figure. We are reported a sale of 1,000 bbls at Oil City, free on cars, at $3 50 ℔ barrel.

REFINED OIL—We did not hear of a single transaction for present or future delivery. Prices advanced to the following: Spot standard white Philadelphia 34c; all month 34½@34¾c; September 35c; September and October 35c; the last four months 34½c.

Flour and Grain at Milwaukee.

Messrs. Oliver & Hart, of Milwaukee, inform us, under date of July 31st, that within the past week the "corner" has been, and is now, in full operation. It is to be hoped that it will cease to-day, at half past two o'clock, the time for the maturing of the July contracts. More or less excitement has prevailed and the fluctuations have been large, No. 1 selling from $2 10 to $2 28, the closing price this morning. We trust that after to-day we may have the pleasure of quoting more steady and healthy markets. No. 2 wheat has been in demand for milling, varying in price from $1 74@1 80, closing nominally at the outside figure. For several days the combination have refused to sell either for shipment or milling at anything under "corner prices," fearing that those parties who have wheat to deliver or settle will refuse to settle at any higher values than those paid by shippers or millers. As a consequence business has been stagnant. There is some demand for No. 1 and 2, for future delivery; $1 88 bid for No. 1, seller next week; $1 75, seller August; $1 65, seller September. No. 2 10c less, with some sales at these figures. All reports are extremely favorable from the harvest field. Considerable wheat has been secured in this State and in Iowa. Ten days more good harvest weather and the entire crop will be secured. Several car loads new spring wheat have been received, and inspected No. 1. The quality is fine as regards color and weight. We see no reason to change our former statement, that the crop will be above an average one, and one-third more in quantity.

We look for liberal receipts of new wheat about the 15th of August. The impression seems to be quite general that the new crop will move at about $1 50 for No. 1 when the movement becomes general; No. 2 about ten cents less. Oats, corn, and other coarse grains, promise exceedingly well, and are now being harvested. Large reinforcements to the harvest force have been made, as the high wages paid for field hands have called more into the field than would have otherwise gone. Most of the shipments the past week have been on speculation, or for account of the combination. Stock in store 109,410 bushels; same time 1867, 57,000 bushels. Shipments for the week have been: By rail, 2,000 bushels; Oswego, 35,800; Ogdensburg, 5,000; Chicago, 64,367; St. Catherine, 14,400; other points, 8,000. Total, 122,397 bushels. Receipts for same time, 47,284 bushels. Receipts since 1st of September, 1867, 12,-720,067 bushels. Shipments for same time, 11,038,393 bushels.

Estimated cost of No. 1 wheat laid down, ($1 58 in store here, exclusive of commissions and interest) present rates of freight 4c to Buffalo; 8c to Oswego; at Buffalo, $1 [illegible]; Oswego, $2; Troy, via Buffalo, $2 [illegible]; Albany, via Oswego, $2 [illegible]; New York, via Buffalo, $2 [illegible]; via Oswego, $2 10; Philadelphia and Baltimore, $2 [illegible].

Flour in light supply, with good demand, with an appreciation since our last of 50@75c ℔ bbl. Fresh ground flour is especially sought after, with no Minnesota offered. We give sales past week of some of our leading brands: 300 bbls Stone $9 50; 500 bbls Riverside, $9 25@9 37½; 400 bbls Ontario $9 25; 100 bbls Riverstreet $9 25; 400 bbls Eagle, $9 25, all choice cities; Monarch, p. t.; 100 bbls Good City, $9 25. Country extras—100 bbls Dodge Co, $8 10; 100 bbls no name, $8 50@8 75. Superfine—100 bbls choice, $6 75; 70 bbls Oriental $7 00; 30 bbls Fox River, $7 62½.

Stock of Flour—4,296 barrels. Same time last week 8,675 barrels.

Oats—Stock very light, barely enough for local wants; some demand for future delivery; 49c bid, seller August.

Freights on Flour—All rail, $1 New York; Philadelphia, $1; Baltimore, $1; Pittsburgh, 70c; Boston, $1 20; Portland, Lake and rail—Buffalo, 40c; Cleveland, 35c; Detroit, 25c; Philadelphia and Baltimore, 85c; Portland, 65c; Boston, 95c; New York, 85c.

Hop Crop of Wisconsin.

For the sake of correcting some of the wild speculations indulged in with regard to the coming hop crop of Wisconsin, says the Baraboo Republican, we are tempted to publish our table of shipments of hops last year, made up as nearly as could be to the date of our paper in which it appeared, December 25, 1867, and embracing returns from every point within the district known as the hop region in Wisconsin. This table undoubtedly presented the most reliable information as to the crop of this district last year that it was possible to obtain. We give it below:

	Bales.
From Kilbourn City	19,044
From Mauston	2,300
From Spring Green	1,319
From Lone Rock	870
From Portage City	854
From New Lisbon	421
From Tomah	416
From Sparta	386
From Mazomanie	244
From Lyndon	200
From Bangor	95
Total	26,149
Deduct reshipments	566
	25,583
And in store at Kilbourn, Dec. 1	500
In growers' hands, and consumed by local brewers	2,000
Total crop of district	28,083

About the same time we gave reports from Jefferson county, then the only important hop-growing county of the State not embraced within this district, placing the crop of that county at 2,000 bales. Dane, Waukesha, Sheboygan, and, perhaps, Winnebago, were the only other counties from which any hops worth speaking of were marketed. We then placed the crop of the State at not exceeding 35,000 bales. We now believe that we should have placed it at not exceeding 31,000. With this indisputable data as to the last crop what sensible man can claim that the coming crop of the State is likely, under the most favorable circumstances, to run up to 80,000 bales, let alone 100,000, or 125,000, or 150,000, as some have estimated it?

In the Republic of July 7th, 1867, we estimated the crop to be picked last fall at 30,600 bales, adding, "It will be fully that." How close our estimate was to the truth, the above figures show. We confess our reluctance to attempt to estimate the crop of 1868. We do, however, attempt it, giving the number of bearing acres estimated in the various counties based upon the best information within our reach, promising that in many instances our information is far from being as satisfactory as we would desire. We believe, however, that while these figures may vary from the truth as regards certain counties, the aggregate will be not far from correct:

ESTIMATE—1868.

County.	Acres.	County.	Acres.
Sauk	6,000	Marquette	300
Juneau	1,450	Green Lake	150
Adams	1,000	Dodge	100
Monroe	1,000	Waupaca	100
Columbia	780	Winnebago	125
Dane	650	Sheboygan	125
Richland	650	Washington	50
Vernon	300	Waukesha	75
LaCrosse	300	Walworth	75
Wood	200	Greene	75
Portage	100	Grant	200
Jefferson	500
From Clark county to the St. Croix			200
All other counties			150
Total acres			14,925

It is believed that the crop in this and adjoining counties last year averaged from 1,400 to 1,500 pounds to the acre. In Jefferson and especially in Waukesha and Sheboygan counties it fell far below this average. Our growers now count on but little over half a crop. The vines, favored by a luxuriant growth on the start, have well withstood the drouth, and still present, except in the lighter soil, a healthy, vigorous appearance. But the arms are short and a large proportion of the blossoms have failed of perfecting. We pay no heed to the talk of vermin, to which perhaps undue importance has been given by the fact that it is a favorite topic of dispute among many of even our best informed hop-growers as to whether the aphis that has been seen upon our hop vines is the same insect that has committed such ravages in the eastern States. Certain it is that this aphis has as yet in this locality had no effect upon the appearance of the vine or the prospects of the crop, and is now rarely to be found in any numbers to give cause for alarm or even comment. With the present prospects, and with favorable weather from this on, we regard it as certain that the coming crop will fully maintain the past reputation of Wisconsin hops. But it cannot exceed 60,000 to 65,000 bales. This, it will be remembered, is the estimate made a year ago by Mr. Moses Young. We, however, reach the same conclusion with him from different data, his estimate being based on a yield equal to that of last year; ours upon a wider average than he allowed, with a reduced yield. Our lowest figure is upon the basis of 800 lbs to the acre; should the average fall below this, and almost all of our growers assert that it will, the aggregate must be proportionately reduced.

Grain at Chicago.

The following resolution was adopted by the Chicago Board of Trade on Friday last:

Resolved, That in the inspection of the new crop of grain, the inspectors continue classifying as "new" until the 20th of August, and that the warehousemen be requested to keep such grain separate, and deliver new or old, as may be represented on the receipts; and on sales made in the regular way, receipts for old or new be considered as regular on and after August 1st.

RIVER NEWS.

THE weather yesterday was changeable. In the the evening we had a good rain.

THE towboat Monitor and keelboat arrived yesterday from Parkersburg with a moderate trip of freight. She will probably return to that point.

THE W. F. Curtis has been chartered for $1,000 per month, to run between Louisville and Cairo, in connection with the John Kilgour, which will run from Cairo to New Orleans.

THE Mowhawk arrived at New Orleans with two barges containing 3,770 bbls flour, 2,792 sacks corn, 7,495 sacks oats, 1,901 sacks bran, 1,124 bales hay, 240 bales straw, 200 barrels pork, 100 sacks meal and other freight—in all 13,184 packages.

THE Davenport Gazette, of Wednesday, says: The wreck of the steamboat Iowa City, sunk opposite Cordova, several weeks ago, has been raised, floated down to LeClaire, and placed on the ways for reconstruction and repairs.

THE cases of Mr. Sam. Barr and Captain W. B. Donaldson, of the steamer Great Republic, are continued to the next term, on account of the absence of all the important witnesses. The absentees are negroes, and they have forfeited their recognizances. Barr's lawyers are anxious to have the witnesses return, as they feel confident that the testimony will acquit their client. Barr is on $20,000 bail meantime, and Donaldson remains in jail.

A LETTER received here yesterday announced that the steamer Monsoon had sunk in Red river, about the middle of July. She was built at Cincinnati in June, 1863, at a cost of $35,000; was sold to parties in New Orleans by David Gibson and others two or three months ago for the Red river trade, and all her policies of insurance in Cincinnati offices canceled. She was a sidewheel boat of 600 tons capacity, and valued at $30,000 a year ago.

SATURDAY'S Cincinnati Gazette says: The towboat Albion arrived yesterday with 250 tons pig iron for Messrs. Kyle & Co., from the furnace of that firm at Hanging Rock.

The J. P. Webb came up here without her inspection papers, and her officers have been put to some trouble in consequence. The penalty for running a boat without such papers is $500. The boat was inspected by Supervising Inspector Guthrie, at New Albany, a short time ago, and not having the proper blank forms at hand, that officer gave the boat a permit to make the trip to this port and return without them.

The Wild Duck is on the marine railway.

ST. LOUIS, July 31.—River still declining, with eight feet of water to Cairo. All the upper streams falling. Weather very warm.

The towboat Beaver or Rover, with several barges, is aground at Dog Tooth Bend, between here and Cairo.

The St. Louis and Quincy Packet Company has consolidated with the Northwestern Union Line, between here and St Paul, and the steamers Tom. Jasper, Mollie McPike and Victory transferred to that company. The line to Keokuk will be continued, to do local business, and an extension will be run from that point to St. Paul, exclusively for passengers. The stockholders of the Quincy retain their stock in the new line, and the Superintendent and Secretary of the Company will manage the business of consolidation. Under the new arrangement a vigorous opposition with the Northwestern line to St. Paul will no doubt be prosecuted, and a strong effort be made for the supremacy of the upper river. The movement of grain in the upper country during the fall, which will be unusually large, will, however, no doubt afford ample business for both lines.

The owners of the steamer Natrona have contracted to clear Black river of obstructions from Poplar Bluffs to the Missouri State line.

The C. J. Caffrey has reopened the channel below St. Paul, so that large boats go through. It is designed to keep a channel depth of four feet or over, all summer.

GET A GOOD SAW,

PINCOTT BAKEWELL ROUND TEMPERED SAW WARRANTED CAST STEEL

And Your Mill will do Good Work

Our Saws are Oil Tempered, Patent Ground, made to Run well.

You will find each Saw of one temper, no hard and soft spots in the same saw.

We accomplish this by our Patent Tempering Process, and you can not get this from any other saw maker, as we own the patents for the United States.

We do not claim to make a cheaper Saw than any one else, but one that will run at the word go, and will give no trouble, and will keep round longer; because being uniform with temper, it will not wear on one side faster than the other.

We invite correspondence, or an interview with the practical man of your firm.
